

Cooler places to propose in the Caribbean

You can do it the old fashioned way, on one knee; the new age-y way, using the hashtag #marry me; or you could ditch the predictable and go for something unique. Here are inspired ideas for popping the question in the Caribbean that go way beyond bling in a box and breakfast in bed.

Tee for two: Anguilla

Greeted by vistas of St. Martin and the Caribbean Sea, popping the question at the CuisinArt Golf Club may not improve your game but it will earn you full marks for trying. If you share a passion for the greens with your other half, Anguilla's only 18-hole Greg Norman-designed course is the ideal perch for a proposal. Picturesque spots include at the sand dunes that frame the drive at 16th hole or at the fairway on the 18th hole that dips 40 feet to green shrubbery. If you score with a hole-in-one, celebrate in a swank suite at the CuisinArt Resort and with a couple's massage in the Venus Spa.
