Party hard and purposefully during Carnival 2016

Now in its sixth year, Hyatt Regency Trinidad's high-energy LIME fete continues its commitment to support local charities

Port of Spain, Trinidad - January 25, 2016 - Tickets for Hyatt Regency Trinidad's highly anticipated all-inclusive party, LIME, are going fast so patrons who are interested in supporting this 'party with a purpose' should purchase their tickets now. A must-do on the Carnival 2016 calendar, this white and lime green themed event takes place on Carnival Wednesday, February 3. Set amidst the breathtaking scenery of Port of Spain's waterfront, it's a show stopper that routinely delivers everything partygoers could hope for and more.

A favorite with residents, jet-setting revelers and international celebrities alike, Hyatt's LIME fete combines the best of soca music with classic calypso in the LIME lounge and flowing top-shelf liquor, champagne, wine, signature cocktails and culinary treats to tempt every palate. Lively performances from crowd pleasers such as the incomparable Machel Mantano, Kes The Band, David Rudder, Bunji Garlin and others plus the camaraderie among charismatic party goers always enhance the overall experience.

Also noteworthy is the fashion, which runs the gamut from casual elegance to the statement-making dramatic. Plus, style-mavens are encouraged to visit The Spa Esencia booth where they can receive mini back, shoulder and foot massages, refresh makeup and get tips on how to create looks that last during the country's peak party period.

There are two ticket categories - Diamond and Platinum - and they cost US$500 and US$275 respectively. Both sections will be filled with various delicacies guaranteed to please. Slow-roasted meats grilled on seasoned coals and smoked woods; Atlantic, Pacific and Caribbean seafood; authentic island fare, along with vegetarian delights and specials are some of the items planned for the menu. Diamond Lounge ticket holders also will have access to the Diamond Platform where they benefit from unobstructed views of the stage.

Guests attending from San Fernando can utilize a complimentary service that departs at 3.00 p.m., 4.30 p.m. and 5.30 p.m. from the water-taxi terminal and returns to San Fernando at 1.30 a.m. Seats are limited to LIME attendees only and reservations must be made in advance.

Part proceeds from the event will be donated to United Way of Trinidad and Tobago to be earmarked for a deserving cause. Past recipients of funds have included The Christ-Child Convalescent Home, Rainbow Rescue Home for Boys, the Amica House for Girls and the Adult Literacy Tutors Association (ALTA). The 2016 recipient will be The Heroes Foundation.
