HYATT REGENCY TRINIDAD APPOINTS ASHMEED ABASS AS BEVERAGE MANAGER

Hyatt Trinidad veteran brings 14 years of hospitality management experience to the Caribbean's leading business hotel

Port of Spain, Trinidad – July 12, 2016 – Hyatt Regency Trinidad Food and Beverage Director Ronan Doherty has proudly announced the promotion and appointment of Ashmeed Abass to Beverage Manager. Located in Port of Spain, Trinidad, Hyatt Regency is considered the Caribbean's leading business hotel. In his new role, Abass will be responsible for handling all beverages services for the hotel, including the lobby bar, which was recognized as one of the 'Coolest Caribbean Hotel Lobby Bars' by USA Today in 2015.

"We are thrilled to have promoted Ashmeed Abass to Beverage Manager as he has been of our most hardworking and dedicated managers," said Doherty. "Throughout the four years he has been with us, he has shown his strength in leadership as a role model. He brings in-depth knowledge of our brand standards and we are confident that he will complement and enhance our existing talent."

Abass began his hospitality career over 14 years ago with Royal Caribbean International as a room service attendant, moving his way up the ranks, eventually being promoted to Assistant Food Manager then Assistant Dining Room Manager.

Four years ago, he moved back to Trinidad to pursue opportunities with Hyatt Regency as the In-room Dining Manager. He's since held several managerial positions with the hotel before being appointed the Beverage Manager. Most recently he held the position of Executive Steward.
