Sirenis Hotels & Resorts Goes “Grand” in Punta Cana

The all-inclusive, Grand Sirenis Punta Cana Resort reopens December 15 following a multimillion dollar renovation

MIAMI – December 14, 2018 – A grand occasion is set to take place this winter in Punta Cana! Sirenis Hotels and Resorts’ family-friendly, all-inclusive resort will open under its new branding, Grand Sirenis Punta Cana Resort following the completion of a $30 million dollar renovation and repositioning. Home to one of Punta Cana’s largest water parks, the all-new resort welcomes guests on December 15 to experience the reimagined hotel just in time for those looking for a last minute winter getaway.

“The rebranding of our Punta Cana resort helps solidify its position as the hotel of choice for families vacationing in the Dominican Republic,” said Caroline Venditti, US marketing manager. “Now a part of the Grand Sirenis family, the beautifully refreshed resort will implement a greater standard of service with its new and improved offerings.”

The resort’s transformation includes a complete renovation of guestrooms, lobby, common areas and restaurants, in addition to improvements of its complementary services and amenities. Inspired by the destination, the resort’s new grand look brings locally inspired décor and avant-garde elements to the elegant property.

As part of the big reveal, Grand Sirenis Punta Cana Resort will unveil two new buildings that will be home to a kids club, fitness center, medical center, pharmacy, beauty salon, local craft shops and more. Additional to the newly constructed area, the resort will also introduce a 7,000 square feet spa which will offer a wide range of services. The resort has also added a stage for live music as well as a completely upgraded pool and beach area featuring a 120-seat picnic table section.

The upgraded resort has also elevated its all-inclusive dining options with the introduction of new restaurant concepts including Tex Mex, where guests will be able to enjoy authentic Mexican cuisine and La Gira Rodizio, a Brazilian-style steakhouse where foodies can dine on traditional Brazilian fare. In addition to new themed restaurants, the resort will also feature new specialty concepts including a health bar, sports bar and ice cream & coffee shop.

Directly situated on the majestic Uvero Alto beach, Grand Sirenis Punta Cana is the ultimate playground for the entire family. Children can spend time at the all new Sirenios Kids Club which features a range of activities including a Lego building zone, “master chef” section, arts & crafts activities and more. Adults can test their luck in the casino, have a drink at a swim up bar or dance the night away at El Bonche lounge. Families can slide into fun together at the Aquagames Water Park which features thrilling attractions, water towers and slides. Additional resort amenities and activities include seven themed restaurants, three buffets, 11 cocktail bars, two pools with beach-style access, watersports and much more.

“We are wholly invested in ensuring the highest standard of satisfaction and unforgettable memories for guests of all ages,” commented Venditti. “That is the true essence of the Grand Sirenis experience.”

Special opening weekend rates start at $200/night for two adults and two children under the age of 12. For more information or to book a stay at the new Grand Sirenis Punta Cana, visit www.sirenishotels.com
